Gold coin jewelry is the ideal gift. Treasured for its beauty and elegance, each selection is superbly hand-crafted and reflects only the highest standards of quality. Together with the gold coin (whether it be from your collection or one chosen from our extensive offering) it is a fashionable gift which never goes out of style; a collector's item increasing in value as it is proudly handed down from generation to generation.

Each stunning piece has been hand-picked to offer you the best examples of classical and modern styles. Each coin, when purchased from us, will be mounted by a qualified numismatist who will handle your selection as carefully as you would.
